| YoY changes | -20.5\% | -3.1\% | +21.9\% |

- Automotive industry remained sluggish amid continued production cutbacks due to semiconductor and parts shortages. On the other hand, the market of semiconductor and electronic components and devices generally remained strong, despite declining demand for smartphones and PCs.
- Although costs increased caused by inflation, both net sales and profits exceeded the full-year financial forecasts due to our ongoing cost reductions and the impact of price increases starting from November orders.
- Consolidated net sales were $¥ 9,656$ million, up 1.4\% YoY.
- Consolidated operating profit was $¥ 2,108$ million, down $0.1 \%$ YoY. Consolidated ordinary profit was $¥ 2,131$ million, down $1.2 \%$ YoY.

■ Operating profit margin was $21.8 \%$ and ordinary profit margin was $22.1 \%$.

Factors for Decrease in Operating Profit

- Domestic net sales decreased by $¥ 26$ million, down $0.4 \%$, while overseas net sales increased by $¥ 158$ million, up $5.4 \%$. Overall net sales increased by $¥ 131$ million, up 1.4\% YoY.
- Cost of sales decreased by $¥ 92$ million, down $2.0 \%$ YoY, while gross profit margin was $53.0 \%$. Cost reduction was successful, despite some cost increases.
- In SG&A expenses, exhibition costs and advertising expenses, which are selling expenses, increased due to aggressive sales activities. SG&A expenses excluding personnel expenses increased by $13.7 \%$ YoY, overall SG&A expenses increased by $¥ 226$ million, up $8.2 \%$ YoY.
- As a result, operating profit decreased by $¥ 2$ million, down $0.1 \%$ YoY, to $¥ 2,108$ million. Operating profit margin was $21.8 \%$, down 0.4 pp YoY.

| No. of employees (persons) | 348 | 352 | +1.1\% |

- Net sales increased by $¥ 9,656$ million, up $1.4 \%$ YoY, due to the effect of the price increase, despite slightly sluggish trend in January-March due to the reaction to some rush demand prior to the price increase for some products implemented from November orders.
- Gross profit was $¥ 5,115$ million, up $4.6 \%$ YoY. Cost of sales decreased by $2.0 \%$ YoY, mainly due to the success of cost reduction by improvement activities, and gross profit margin was $53.0 \%$, up 1.6 pp YoY.
- Overall SG&A expenses increased by $8.2 \%$ YoY in line with the rise in expenses from sales activities such as exhibition costs. SG&A expenses ratio was $31.1 \%$, up 1.9 pp YoY.
- As a result, operating profit decreased by $0.1 \% \mathrm{YoY}$ to $¥ 2,108$ million and operating profit margin was $21.8 \%$, down 0.4 pp YoY.
- Capital expenditures were $¥ 686$ million, up $4.1 \%$ YoY, falling short of initial forecasts, due to a delay in the facility planning. Depreciation decreased by $3.2 \%$ YoY.

Summary of Balance Sheet

Current assets

Increased by 4.2\% from the end of previous fiscal year due to an increase in inventories such as finished goods and raw materials.

Non-current assets

Investments and other assets increased by $86.8 \%$ YoY mainly due to an increase in insurance funds resulting from the new insurance contracts. Overall Non-current assets increased by $8.1 \%$ YoY.

Liabilities

Decreased by 3.0\% YoY due to a decrease in income taxes payable and accrued consumption taxes.

Net assets

Increased by 6.4\% YoY due to an increase in retained earnings, etc. Equity ratio was $90.1 \%$, up 0.9 pp YoY.

Business Performance (Trend of net sales (1) By product)

Trend of net sales by product and ratio of small-diameter end mills

- The automotive industry remained sluggish as the production volume stagnated due to the effects of semiconductor and parts supply shortages. On the other hand, the market of semiconductor and electronic components and devices generally remained strong, although they stabilized toward the latter half of the year, reflecting declining demand for smartphones and PCs that had been brisk.
- There was some rush demand prior to the price increases for some products from November orders. As a reactionary to this, net sales for full-year were $¥ 9,656$ million, up $1.4 \%$ YoY, although it was somewhat sluggish in January-March.
- Net sales for mainstay end mills (diameter 6mm or less) increased by $0.5 \%$ YoY, and end mills (diameter over 6 mm ), which has a larger diameter, decreased by $2.0 \%$ YoY, and end mills (other), mainly special products custom-made to users, increased by $9.8 \%$ YoY. Other products such as tool cases also increased by $10.0 \%$ YoY. The ratio of small-diameter end mills declined by 0.7 pp YoY to $77.5 \%$.

Business Performance (Trend of net sales (2) Domestic and overseas)

Trend of domestic and overseas net sales

- Domestic net sales decreased by $¥ 26$ million, down $0.4 \%$ to $¥ 6,544$ million YoY. It was at the same level as previous fiscal year.
- Overseas net sales increased by $¥ 158$ million, up $5.4 \%$ YoY to a record high of $¥ 3,112$ million. In Greater China, which accounts for a large proportion, there were moves to secure inventories in anticipation of demand, such as lockdown measures in China in April-June and some rush prior to price increases in July-September, net sales generally remained strong.
- The overseas net sales ratio rose by 1.2 pp YoY to $32.2 \%$. Ten years ago, it was less than $20 \%$, but after the establishment of NS Tool Hong Kong Ltd., the ratio has increased every fiscal year since $F Y 3 / 14$. It has been above $30 \%$ since $F Y 3 / 20$.

Business Performance (Trend of net sales (3) By overseas region)

Trend of net sales by overseas region

- Combined net sales of China, Hong Kong and Taiwan increased by $12.0 \%$ YoY to $¥ 1,523$ million. Figures for China in account consolidation of NS Tool Hong Kong Ltd. are for January to December 2022. Net sales reached a record high due to moves to secure inventory through lockdown measures and some rush demand prior to the price increases.
- Other Asia increased by $2.8 \%$ YoY to $¥ 783$ million. Production was increasing in automotive industry due to the elimination of parts shortages, but there were differences among regions.
- Europe increased by $1.1 \%$ YoY to $¥ 653$ million. While fuel prices remained high due to the situation in Ukraine, automotive industry recovered in some areas, but remained sluggish overall.
- U.S. and Others decreased by $17.8 \%$ YoY to $¥ 152$ million. In the previous fiscal year, there was an increase in orders, mainly in the medical care industry, but in the current fiscal year, user activity slowed down due to inflation and cost reduction. Going forward, the Company aims to expand sales mainly at its newly established U.S. subsidiary.

Business Performance (Trend of gross profit)

Trend of gross profit and  gross profit margin

- Raw material cost decreased slightly YoY and outsourcing expenses decreased by $8.8 \%$ YoY, due to production planning according to demand and promotion of manufacturing internalization. Meanwhile, labor costs increased by $7.8 \%$. Electricity power costs increased by more than $30 \%$ YoY, but manufacturing expenses increased only $1.4 \%$ YoY due to the success of ongoing cost reduction efforts on the manufacturing frontlines.
- Cost of sales was $¥ 4,540$ million, down $2.0 \%$ YoY, since product inventory increased by $16.1 \% \mathrm{YoY}$ due to inventory expansion.
- Gross profit increased by $4.6 \%$ YoY to $¥ 5,115$ million and gross profit margin was $53.0 \%$, up 1.6 pp YoY.

Business Performance (Trend of SG&A expenses)

Trend of SG&A expenses and SG&A expenses ratio

- In selling expenses, exhibition costs increased due to participation in large-scale exhibitions such as JIMTOF and INTERMOLD in Japan and IMTS in the United States, and advertising expenses also increased due to the production of catalogues and pamphlets. In addition, travel expenses increased due to the resumption of sales activities, selling expenses increased by $40.4 \%$ YoY to $¥ 467$ million.
- Personnel expenses increased by $4.2 \%$ YoY to $¥ 1,701$ million due to an increase in employee salaries and provision for bonuses.

Consolidated Financial Forecasts for FY3/24

Financial Forecasts

| (Unit: $¥$ million) | FY3/23  Actual | FY3/24  Forecasts | YoY  Changes |
| :--- | ---: | ---: | ---: |
| Net Sales | 9,656 | 9,870 | $+2.2 \%$ |
| Operating profit | 2,108 | 1,820 | $-13.7 \%$ |
| Ordinary profit | 2,131 | 1,830 | $-14.2 \%$ |
| Profit attributable to  owners of parent | 1,475 | 1,220 | $-17.3 \%$ |

| Capital investment | 686 | 1,037 | $+51.1 \%$ |
| :--- | ---: | ---: | ---: |
| Depreciation | 669 | 714 | $+6.6 \%$ |
| EPS (¥) | 59.16 | 48.88 | $-17.4 \%$ |
| Dividend per share (¥) | 22.50 | 25.00 | $+11.1 \%$ |

- For automobiles, we expect the shortage of parts dissipate, and production volume to gradually recover. For semiconductors and electronic components, although there are concerns about a decline in some demand, we expect a certain level of demand in a wide range of sectors due to the anticipated advancement of communication and computational processing by the expansion of DX.
- Net sales are expected to increase slightly due to aggressive sales activities in line with the normalization of economic activities and the launch of new product. It is inevitable that costs for materials and electricity will increase continuously, and we also expect the increase in costs due to the increase in wages.
- FY3/24 forecasts are for net sales $¥ 9,870$ million, up $2.2 \%$ YoY, operating profit $¥ 1,820$ million, down $13.7 \%$ YoY, and ordinary profit $¥ 1,830$ million, down $14.2 \%$ YoY.
- As for capital expenditures, continuous expansion of production facilities is planned. It is expected to increase by $51.1 \%$ due in part to a delay in facility planning from the previous fiscal year.
- The annual dividend per share is planned to be $¥ 25$ including an interim dividend of $¥ 12.5$ and a year-end dividend of $¥ 12.5$.

Trend of Capital Investment and Depreciation

Trend of capital investment, depreciation, and cash and deposits balance

[^0]Factors for increase/decrease in capital investment
FY3/20
Increased due to completion of the new R&D center, introduction of R&D-related equipment, construction of a new building at a subsidiary plant and ongoing renewal of production facilities.

FY3/21

Due in part to the decline in utilization rates, the introduction of some equipment was carried over into the next fiscal year, resulting in a decrease compared to the initial plan.

FY3/22

With the recovery of the operating rates, the level is the same as usual, such as continuous installation of production facilities.

FY3/23

Mainly implemented expansion of production facilities. The introduction of equipment was partially delayed to the next fiscal year, and decreased from the initial plan.
FY3/24 (Plan)
Continuous expansion of production facilities is planned. Includes part of equipment introduction plan scheduled in the previous year.
